

“Take A Hike”

Presented by Team Turtle Racing, Trails of Freedom, and Coventry Rec Department

What to Expect:

Explore Coventry, Connecticut's local trails by joining us for this fun and educational hiking series.

This is a FREE family-friendly event led by an experienced team of environmental scientists and outdoor adventurers.

What You Will Need:

- Comfortable hiking boots or shoes
- Water bottle
- Your learning cap!

Schedule and Locations:

The explorations will be held at three local trails in Coventry:

- Saturday, May 7th, 2011:
 - Creaser Park, 10am-12pm
- Sunday, May 22nd, 2011:
 - Nathan Hale Homestead, 10am-12pm
- Saturday, May 28th, 2011:
 - Patriot Park Woods Trail, 10am-12pm
- Sunday, June 5th, 2011:
 - Creaser Park, 10am-12pm

For directions and further information, please visit our website at www.trailsoffreedom.com.

Our Hike Guides will be Trails of Freedom, LLC.

Who We Are:

Trails of Freedom is a conservation-minded group of hikers dedicated to exploring, documenting and preserving the world's most unique wilderness experiences. Trails of Freedom seeks to bring the excitement of the outdoors to everyone while emphasizing the importance of preserving the natural treasures that we so deeply appreciate.

Our Mission:

It is our mission to inspire people to enjoy and better understand the environment so they will have a vested and active interest in protecting it. Trails of Freedom uses its experiences to provide an in-depth look at the beauty and the adventure of the outdoors.

To take a look at our videos, articles, photography and other events, visit our website at www.trailsoffreedom.com.

Contact Information:

Trails of Freedom, LLC

Leigh Anne Crocco

leighanne@trailsoffreedom.com

Team Turtle Racing

Ben Rach

Teamturtleracing2011@gmail.com

www.teamturtle-racing.com